

JACK MATTHEWS

Director, Human Services Department

CONTACT INFORMATION

Phone: 860-727-6774

Email: jmatthews@goodwin.edu

Office: Rm 409-D

EDUCATION

Advanced Graduate Work, University of Connecticut

Master of Education, Springfield College
Guidance and Psychological Services

Bachelor of Science, Springfield College
Psychology - emphasis in counseling

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 34 years experience designing and directing human services programs
- Extensive nonprofit management experience
- Provided consultation to more than 30 rehabilitation organizations throughout the Northeast.
- Consultant for CARF, a national organization that accredits human services programs. Conducted more than 90 accreditation surveys during the past 25 years at human service organizations throughout the United States and Canada.
- Adjunct professor in Rehabilitation and Management at Springfield College and Special Education at American International College

CONTRIBUTIONS to the PROFESSION

- Speaker on program planning and development and other topics at numerous local, state and national conferences.
- Life Member, National Rehabilitation Association
- Member, National Rehabilitation Counselor's Association
- Past President, Massachusetts Association of Rehabilitation Facilities (MARF)
- Past Board Member, Massachusetts Rehabilitation Counseling Association (MRCA)
- Past Board Member, Massachusetts Council of Human Services Providers (MCHSP)
- Former Legislative Chairman for MARF and MCHSP
- Board Member of numerous community organizations
- Selected to serve on CARF National Advisory Council.