

Eric Murray, President, Team Training Associates

Eric is a decorated military and law enforcement veteran with over 26 years of professional experience. He has served in the U.S. Army Infantry, a municipal police department and the past 20 plus years with the Connecticut State Police. Eric is currently assigned as the Executive Officer for a Regional Investigative Task Force in a major New England city. His experience includes administrative and operational assignments as a Patrol Supervisor, SWAT team operator and State Police Academy Instructor. He holds instructor level certifications with the Connecticut State Police, Connecticut Police Officers Standards of Training (POST) and New England State Police Association (NESPAC). He is actively teaching training programs in the areas of Leadership/ Supervision, Team Building, Human Performance Management, Safety and Survival, Patrol Tactics, Fitness and Wellness. He holds a fitness trainer certification from the acclaimed Cooper Institute. He has authored and published several instructional law enforcement training DVD's; Police Ground Combat, Police Safety and Survival Volume 1 and 2 which have been distributed to civilian and military law enforcement organizations within CONUS and throughout Canada, Europe and Asia. Eric serves on the advisory committee for the Goodwin College Business Department utilizing his experience to collaborate public service, local business and higher learning institutions for improving human performance management systems. He successfully pioneered the Command Climate Assessment Survey into public service and private sector business for improving overall organization and individual leadership competencies. Eric is the first civilian law enforcement officer to graduate the United States Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Academy where he received the coveted "Spirit of the Chief Award". He was awarded the distinguished honorary title of Chief Petty Officer by the Commandant of the USCG. Eric holds a B.A. in Communications and a M.S. in Organizational Leadership. He is a life-long learner continuing his post graduate studies and research directed toward a PhD in Business Administrations.