

Anthony J. Camilleri Jr.

President/CEO

USA Security Services Corporation

Mr. Camilleri is the owner/operator of a full service security company, retired from the Hartford Police Department in Hartford, Connecticut in 2002 at the rank of Lieutenant, holding the position of Commanding Officer for the Department's Traffic Division. He has lectured nationally and internationally on variety of police and security related subjects. Camilleri has served as an adjunct instructor for Manchester Community College, Northwestern Community College and the University of North Florida @ IPTM in Jacksonville, FL. Camilleri has received an award and U.S. Congressional recognition from the State of Connecticut General Assembly, an award and Presidential recognition from President Clinton and the U.S. Secret Service, as well as numerous additional awards and citations for his efforts and contributions regarding public safety. Camilleri is a member of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary and holds a Masters Captain's License and is currently serving on the Business Advisory Board for Goodwin College.