

Kimalee Williams

Hartford, CT

Kimalee Williams is President/CEO of Faith Asset Management, LLC (FAM) located in East Hartford, CT providing property management services to a variety of housing complexes throughout Hartford, Middletown, Essex and New Haven counties. Kimalee has over 17 years of property management experience in cooperative, elderly, commercial, affordable and conventional housing. She is a National Association of Housing Cooperative (NAHC) board member and President for the Cooperative Housing Association of New England (CHANE). Kimalee is a nationally certified trainer and has provides board or director training throughout the United States. She is a Certified Manager of Housing, a Certified Occupancy Specialist and a licensed real estate agent. In 2009 Kimalee created and taught an Introduction to Property Management course at Housatonic Community College in Bridgeport, CT. She has a passion for teaching and helping to maintain affordable housing through cohesive boards, procurement of resources for physical and financial improvement, and legislative influence.