The ceremonial Goodwin College Mace is a part of all formal ceremonies and convocations. The mace bearer leads the procession followed by the President and Chair of the Board of Trustees. Our mace bearer will be the Chair of the Faculty Senate, currently Sherrilyn Bernier.

The design of the mace is very specific to the College and conveys the traditions of our institution. The top of the mace is the Goodwin College Seal. The four small symbols attached to the staff are the State of Connecticut Seal, the Town of East Hartford Seal, 1999, and a ship’s wheel representing our mascot, the Navigator.

The presidential medallion is the symbol of the leadership of the College. The components of the chain represent important dates, academic disciplines, mottos, and other elements that tell the Goodwin College story. These include our accrediting agency logo, NEASC (New England Association of Schools and Colleges), the symbols of our baccalaureate degree programs and the four symbols on the mace staff.

Goodwin College was established in 1999.

The New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) provides accreditation for Goodwin College.

Our mascot, the Navigator, represents the spirit of our students to persevere through all challenges, as well as the proud nautical traditions of the Connecticut River.

Congratulations From the Board of Trustees

As stewards of the College, we support its growth and evolution, while remaining mindful of the founding principles of the institution, chiefly, that every student deserves the opportunity and support to succeed. Our institutional success — and the measure of our leadership — is tied inexorably to the success of every one of our students. For us, the reward for our service comes each year at Commencement when we witness hundreds receive their hard-earned degrees.

James Tillman
AS, Human Services

James Tillman grew up in the inner city of Hartford, Connecticut. James and his two brothers were raised by a single mother earning minimum wage and working hard to make ends meet.

In January 1988, James was wrongfully convicted, and sentenced to 45 years in prison, where he served over 18 years before being released.

At the pivotal moment of his life, after all his appeals were lost and there was no hope of release, James forgave everyone involved in his wrongful conviction. Dedicating his life to God, James released his anger, deciding that, if he had to spend the rest of his life behind bars, he would do so inspired by Christ. Shortly after his transformation, James received word that there was no hope of release, James forgave everyone involved in his wrongful conviction.

On June 6, 2006, James Tillman was released from Cheshire Correctional Institution. Transitioning to life outside of prison was not easy – but thanks to an outpouring of support from the community, James was able to find a job, settle into his new life, begin working towards his degree with a full scholarship to Goodwin College, and co-author The Power Of Conviction: My Wrongful Conviction 18 Years in Prison and the Freedom Earned Through Forgiveness and Faith, a book telling the story of his remarkable journey. James is an avid speaker to the younger community, visiting schools of all levels to share his experiences and express the importance of forgiveness and of making the right choices.

Today, James graduates with an associate degree in Human Services and will continue to work towards his bachelor’s degree.

Lee Housley
Valedictorian
BS, Management and Leadership

Originally from Australia, but born to an American mother, Lee moved to the United States in 1996 where she spent the first few years getting to know her mother’s side of the family and establishing herself here in Connecticut. Lee first began working for an independently-owned dealer auto auction in East Windsor, which she still describes as one of the most fun jobs she has ever had. A few jobs and 14 years later, in 2010 Lee enrolled at Goodwin College. Lee went on to graduate in 2013 with an A.S. in Business Administration and is now graduating with a B.S. in Management and Leadership.

Since graduating with her associate degree, Lee was able to move up with her current employer, Eversource Energy, into the position of Associate Transportation Analyst. Lee has remained connected to Goodwin College through the Alumni Leadership Committee and recently was named a member of the Goodwin College Foundation Board of Directors.

Lee resides in Berlin, CT with her partner, Alan, and their Bernese mountain dog, Sam.

Bob Zellner
Civil Rights Activist

Bob Zellner became one of the first white southerners to engage in the early Civil Rights movement, organizing sit-ins and rallies from Missouri to Massachusetts. Throughout his journey, Zellner was insulted, violently beaten, and arrested more than 18 times.

In 1967, Zellner and his wife organized GROW (Grass Roots Organizing Work), an anti-racism project for black and white workers in the Deep South. Beginning in the mid-sixties, Zellner worked on documentary and feature films. Zellner felt that the film “Mississippi Burning” so distorted the role of the FBI in the movement that he toured college campuses lecturing on the real history of the struggle.

Zellner’s memoir, The Wrong Side of Murder Creek, A White Southerner in the Freedom Movement, a collaboration with Constance Curry and foreword by Julian Bond, was published in 2008. The Library Journal gave the book a Red Star Review: “He tells a story that is sometimes horrific, always interesting and ultimately inspirational about a white Southerner’s commitment to racial justice.”

Bob Zellner overcame fear and community pressure in order to become an integral part of the Civil Rights movement. His incredible perseverance helped shape the course of history, and he continues to inspire others to seek justice and equality.

Joseph R. Marfuggi,
President and C.O.O. Riverfront Recapture

Mr. Marfuggi assumed staff leadership of Riverfront Recapture, Inc. in November 1989 after serving as Deputy Director for three years. As President, he is responsible for a physical planning and development staff that oversees the design and construction of public parks and recreational facilities along the Riverfront in Hartford and East Hartford.

Marfuggi also supervises a programs and events staff that offers opportunities for people of all ages and backgrounds to participate in, and benefit from, the Riverfront project. Close to a million people now use the Riverfront parks each year.

As President, he has led a development effort to raise millions in funding commitments since 1989 for the design and construction of Riverfront park improvements.

A native of Vermont, Mr. Marfuggi has lived in Hartford for more than 40 years. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Connecticut and a master’s degree in Communication from Stanford University. Mr. Marfuggi served as the Assistant Director of Development at the University of Connecticut Health Center before joining Riverfront Recapture in 1986. He plans to remain in Hartford after he retires from Riverfront Recapture in June.

Bob Zellner’s memoir, The Wrong Side of Murder Creek, A White Southerner in the Freedom Movement, a collaboration with Constance Curry and foreword by Julian Bond, was published in 2008. The Library Journal gave the book a Red Star Review: “He tells a story that is sometimes horrific, always interesting and ultimately inspirational about a white Southerner’s commitment to racial justice.”
